

The RiverPlace Gazette

February 2004 • Volume 1, Issue 1

The RiverPlace Condominium Development Team hopes you had a wonderful Holiday Season.

Davis and Julie Rhorer at the Opening of the RiverPlace Hospitality Center

River Place Hospitality Center at 358 Third Street was open December 5th for the North Boulevard Festival of Lights. Hundreds of lit stars were in the grand oak trees of North Boulevard as well as thousands of additional lights were lit kicking off the 2003 Holiday Season. We were delighted to welcome our “Insider’s Circle” members as well as many new faces. There were a variety of activities for everyone to enjoy including the Bethlehem Village on the Boulevard, open house at the Old Governor’s Mansion and Old State Capitol, Classic Christmas movies at Galvez Plaza, a holiday laser show at the Planetarium, Ned Fasullo and the Fabulous Big Band Orchestra, Jingle Bell Jog and unique products for sale by Main Street Market vendors. The Hospitality Center was beautifully decorated and several local artists displayed their work. We would like to thank everyone that stopped by and visited with our development team.

CAPITOL HOUSE SOLD!

According to the Morning Advocate of Saturday, January 31st, developer Bob Dean has sold the historic Capitol House. A plan to revitalize this historic hotel is scheduled to commence spring of 2004. How exciting!

ATTENTION TO DETAIL!

Our design team lead by architect Russell Washer of Washer, Hill, and Lipscomb has been working conscientiously to ensure that every consideration is given to all facets of the building’s architecture, lush landscaping, resort-style amenities, unique and spacious floor plans designed to exceed your expectations and deliver the quality that you deserve.

EVENTS

Meet the Architect and be among the very first to preview floor plans. The development team for RiverPlace Condominiums is planning an “Insider’s Circle” event for Thursday, February 26th. Look for your invitation to preview and select your floor plan. To reserve your appointment for this exclusive preview, please call Dawn Ross at our Hospitality Center (225) 389-9112 for details or visit our website at www.RiverPlaceBR.com

CONGRATULATIONS!

Everyone at RiverPlace Condominiums would like to CONGRATULATE Coach Nick Saban and the LSU Football Team for winning the 2003 National Championship. The team and coaches’ success is a tremendous accomplishment for LSU and the State of Louisiana.